

STUDENTS' ACADEMIC INCUBATOR (et al.) IN NAVAJYOTHI

PRINCIPLES AND POLICIES

Introduction

This is an academic incubator that fosters the students to develop their skills and acquire theoretical and additional skills during their course of study in the college.

The Context

Navajyothi College, with its vision Lighted to Enlighten, is committed to providing unbiased and impartial formation to its students. With zero discrimination, the management and staff provide the best to develop the academic and non-academic lives of the students.

The students who join the college for their degree studies need skill training, personality development, and others. Realising their inner potential, the college promotes their skills through the SAIN et al. – Students' Academic Incubator (and others) of Navajyothi. This platform is used to encourage academic discourses, training programmes, skill acquisition, leadership training, placement assistance, and similar pieces of training.

Principles

The underlying principle of this venture is “to excel in academics and ensure the integral growth of the students”, as the mission of the institute state. The mission perspectives of the college are generated from the vision “Lighted to Enlighten”.

SAIN et al. is a programme that evolved through the years in line with the vision and mission of the college to transform young men and women who pass through the portals of this college into capable individuals with academic and co-academic excellence. With a well-defined philosophy of its functioning and objectives, sain et al. was a success during these past years.
